

Dr. C. J. ... Dispatch

DAILY—WEEKLY—SUNDAY.

Business Office, 1116 E. Main Street, Washington Bureau, 1267 M. Main Building, Manchester Bureau, 11107 Hull Street, Petersburg Bureau, 140 N. Sycamore St., Lynchburg Bureau, 1215 Eighth St.

BY MAIL. One Six Three One POSTAGE PAID. Year, Mo. Mo. Mo. Daily with Sunday, $4.00 $2.00 $1.50 .55 Daily without Sunday, 4.00 2.00 1.00 .55 Sunday edition only, 2.00 1.00 .50 .25 Weekly (Wednesday), 1.00 .50 .25 .10

Entered January 27, 1903, at Richmond, Va., as second-class matter, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

HOW TO CALL TIMES-DISPATCH.

Persons wishing to communicate with The Times-Dispatch by telephone will ask central for "4441," and on being answered from the office switchboard, will indicate the department or person with whom they wish to speak.

When calling between 6 A. M. and 9 A. M. call to central office direct for 4441, composing room; 4042, business office; 4043, for mailing and press-rooms.

FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1907.

Going Out of Town?

Subscribers who leave the city temporarily should have The Times-Dispatch mailed them. Addresses will be changed as often as required.

You can keep fully informed about Richmond affairs only through The Times-Dispatch.

Before leaving, mail or phone your address to this office. Phone 4041, City Circulation Department.

RICHMOND DAY.

Yesterday was a great success for the visitors to the exposition, and for the exposition as well. For the visitors it meant a large assemblage of Richmonders, who came together on a notable occasion and heard most encouraging reports of their city's prosperity, power and beauty.

President Tucker and Governor Swanson vied with each other in praising the charms of Richmond, the character of the men and the beauty of the women. The orator of the day, Mr. John Skelton Williams, in a striking oration, dwelt on the development and history of Richmond from a small colonial town to its present dominant position in the affairs of the State and its adjacent territory.

It is to be noted that John W. Gates merely "predicted" that Birmingham would have 10,000,000 population in twenty years, and let it go at that. When John really and truly means a thing, he never fails to stand right behind it in person, accompanied by $100,000 and up.

It was a grand, grand day. If you missed it, don't come to us looking for sympathy. The only thing to do is to get ready for a real Jonathan-upon-the-spot next time.

The Fairbanks family will hold a big reunion in Boston beginning July 20th. It is estimated that the affair will be strictly upon a cold water basis.

If we may infer anything from the title of a new vaudeville skit has an old Virginia minstrel-joke for its hero. It is called "The Spirit of the Press."

A grasshopper can jump 200 times its own length, which is more than 200 times as far as a stockmarket seems able to jump these days.

It was reserved for Richmond to give Old Jamestown such a day as she has never had in her 300 odd years of white man's history.

"Good credit is often as good as gold," said the sentimental Baltimore American. Yes, indeed. Also, a little more frequent.

Borrowed Jingles.

INTOXICATING LITERATURE.

There is more intoxication in some books than in a bottle of wine. Gilbert K. Chesterton.

More powerful becomes with age; and reading certain books, I've found.

Will set my top-piece spinning round.

A. Into romance by Edith Fudge.

Will leave me sobbing and a judge.

I read "the novel of the year."

And never felt the least bit queer.

But give me Dickens, and I vow, O Chester, that I shall be high.

With loaf of bread and jug of wine— His head was clearer far than mine.

A page or two of Hardy's "Tess" Brings on a pleasant fiddleness.

And after I have finished "Jude" I am, to put it mildly, stowed.

A line or so of Goethe's "Faust" Quite enough to get me soured.

And reading "Heine's" "Lorelei" I have a wild desire to buy.

A little tale of Guy de Maup. Has just the same effect as dope.

While "The Yellow Wallpaper" Gives me gyration of the brain.

And as for Gilbert Chesterton, His essays generate a "hum,"

Whose by Gilbert K. is tickled Is paradoxically pickled.

—Puck.

MERELY JOKING.

The Dentist's Qualification.

"Does dentists go to heaven, Willie?"

"Sure. They let's 'em in so's they kin put gold crowns on the angels."—Denver Post.

Very, Very Little.

"Margie: 'I criticized my bathing dress shamefully.'"

Margie: "I think they had very little to talk about."—Illustrated Bits.

Story of the Frank Walter.

"See here, waiter, I don't find coffee in the kitchen."—Extra.

"No, sir. Between you and me, sir, it's a pretty punk."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Dare They Took.

"Parson, somebody dared us to get married, and we never take a dare. Here we are."

"Well, my young friends, I dare you to go home and endeavor to cultivate some common sense."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

George's Little Mistake.

Mr. Justico: "Why, what are you crying about, George?"

Mrs. Justico: "Oh, George, the cry-baby has not the pantry and eaten up the last of the custard!"

Mr. Justico: "There, there. Don't cry over a few little mice."—Cleveland Leader.

Cholly Was Immune.

"Aren't you going in bathing?" asked Miss Peppery.

Cholly replied: "You know, they say there's a huge shark lurking about the beach these days."

"Doesn't anybody should that shark you?" they say to him, man-eating shark, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

POINTS FROM PARAGRAPHS.

MAYBE we might have a sane Fourth of July if dealers in fireworks were compelled to give an accident policy contract with every package.—New York Tribune.

Dollar wheat and a dollar corn make it still harder to tell why boys leave the farm.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Bandits are perfectly right in saying that Mr. Fairbanks shouldn't have offered cocktails to Mr. Roosevelt. There's no reason why he should have offered an undesirable citizen with four or five Manhattan under his belt.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"The kids," says Rev. L. D. Bass, "is the devil's car." We've often pondered the secret of its admission.—Detroit Journal.

The fee of a doctor in China is said to be from two to ten cents. At that rate the Chinese could afford to have an attack of appendicitis for about the price an American's attack has.—Washington Post.

Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson seems to have a notion that the Japanese will declare war on the United States as soon as they learn how to connect with the navy.—Omaha Bee.

The decline of the tea trade is viewed with alarm in China.

Taken the way over the annual average rainfall is sixty inches.

The tobacco plant has grown larger and more profuse in the United States than in any other country to the department.

Coffed plantations in bloom are snow white, and exhale a delicious odor, but the blossoms die in a day.

There are great weeds in this country who are bringing their owners a yearly profit of $2,000 an acre.

Greene is said to be the poorest country in the world, with a population of 1,000,000,000, or about half that of Switzerland.

It is estimated that the total cost of England's present war is $100,000,000, and about $300,000,000 have been spent in the last ten years.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strauss not only won't let a woman work a day at his desk, but goes in for pedestrianism at spare times. No government carriage conveys him to the department.

Duke Ulrich, of Wurtemberg, deals in cakes and omelets, and in conjunction with Prince Christian Hohenzollern, he manufactures corsets and the public "Hohenzollern corsets," which have a vast sale among South German ladies on account of their price.

Washington was made a Mason in 1753 and attained a higher dignity in 1758 than any of the other Presidents.

There is no reason why the public should not be allowed to drink whiskey, if it is not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: After the way you have said about the people not endorsing the movement to erect a monument to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt, I am sure you would never do for the good people of good old Nelson county to lend their money to a cause which would not do so, but Mr. Editor, would it not be wise for you and other influential papers to warn the women of our land against the practice of drinking? Miss Lovine's testimony did not show that she had drunk whiskey, but that she had drunk it, and she was not "drugged." No, it was not even "drugged" by Mr. Kerner.

Borrowed Jingles.

INTOXICATING LITERATURE.

There is more intoxication in some books than in a bottle of wine. Gilbert K. Chesterton.

More powerful becomes with age; and reading certain books, I've found.

Will set my top-piece spinning round.

A. Into romance by Edith Fudge.

Will leave me sobbing and a judge.

I read "the novel of the year."

And never felt the least bit queer.

But give me Dickens, and I vow, O Chester, that I shall be high.